SHOCKING NEW FILM PROVES COVER UP IN WACO SIEGE

By Jarret B. Wollstein

A stunning new motion picture documentary - Waco: The Rules of Engagement - blows the lid off of years of media and government lies about what really happened in Waco.

For nearly four years, the FBI and the Clinton administration have insisted that the Branch Davidians committed suicide and burned themselves. Now infrared film, allegedly taken by the FBI, shows these claims to be utter fabrications.

It also shows how the FBI - probably acting on direct orders of the White House - deliberately and systematically massacred at least 76 men, women and children in Waco.

People in the audience were crying at the horrifying scenes of government brutality revealed in this documentary.

The heart of Waco: The Rules of Engagement is extensive FBI aerial FLIR (Forward-Looking-Infra-Red) film, obtained by the surviving Davidians' attorneys for their trial two years ago. Other sources include audio tapes of the government negotiations, and videos made by the FBI, BATF and Branch Davidians. Some of this information has never before been made public.

HEAT IMAGES

Most crucial is the FLIR film, which records heat images, rather than visible light. The FLIR film clearly shows events behind the building, concealed from news cameras. Heat images also make visible government troops and tanks firing bullets and grenades.

Film of the initial BATF attack on February 28, 1993, shows machine guns being fired from Texas National Guard helicopters into the wooden building filled with women and children. FBI negotiator Jim Cavanaugh is also heard admitting that agents fired from helicopters - a crucial fact repeatedly denied by government officials and a clear violation of laws against the indiscriminate use of deadly force.

Revelations about the devastating April 19, 1993 final assault - which

This M-1 Abrams tank was at the Waco siege, but wasn't reported by the press. The church "compound" was burned down on April 19, 1993, along with 80 men, women and children. Have you seen their charred remains on the front page of the newspapers? So much for the free press.

was, according to the film, directly controlled by the White House - are even more horrific.

The film shows FBI tanks systematically crushing the wooden building, which then housed some 80 men, women and children, room-by-room. Simultaneously loudspeakers blare "this is not an assault." Moments later, an FBI tank can be seen dragging the crushed body of one Davidian between its treads.

As the Davidians' home is demolished, most surviving women and children (identified by infrared photography as blobs) crowd into a single concrete room with just one door. FBI troops and armored cars then advance. They repeatedly fire automatic weapons into the room through the walls and the single door, killing anyone who tries to escape.

TANKS SHOT GRENADES

Finally, FBI tanks fire grenades at three separate locations in the building. Fireballs immediately rush down the corridors and fire engulfs the building.

Most remaining survivors burn to death, while the FBI prevents any fire trucks from entering the property. A subsequent official investigation finds military pyrotechnic (i.e., fire-starting) grenades near the site where two fires began.

Prior to the final assault, you also see FBI tanks spraying CS powder dissolved in methyl chloride into the building. An FBI supervisor boasts on camera that they deliberately saturated the Davidian women and children's final refuge.

CS is a chemical warfare agent whose effects include burning of the skin, nausea, inability to breathe, vomiting, and death (particularly among children). In January 1993 - three months before the final siege of Waco - the government signed an international treaty banning the use of CS in war because it is too

Waco: The Rules of Engagement

New Film Even Upsets Liberals!

Electronic Telegraph International News

By Ambrose Evans-Pritchard
in San Francisco

IF A MEMBER of the FBI had dared to show his face at the Roxie arts cinema in San Francisco last week, he would have been tarred and feathered by the audience.

Citizens had gathered to watch Waco: The Rules of Engagement. The documentary, which held the viewers' attention for almost three hours, challenges the US government's claim that the Branch Davidians in Waco set fire to themselves and their children on April 19, 1993.

It offers evidence from infra-red cameras and scientific experts that the FBI itself was responsible for the fire that killed 75 people. If this is so, it would have been the worst abuse of power on US soil since the massacre of Indians at Wounded Knee a century ago.

The San Francisco screening was a test release on a liberal audience. "The conventional wisdom in Hollywood is that only the fringe Right-wing crazies care about Waco and there's no money in it," said the producer, Dan Gifford. "So we're trying it out at the Roxie to see if that's true."

On Thursday night, the audience was outraged. "I'm devastated," said a young man. "I had no idea the Feds were capable of doing anything like this."

About 100 people stayed for a discussion with The Telegraph. More than half identified themselves as liberal or Left-wing, and they were willing to believe the worst allegations made in the film. When asked if they were persuaded that the infra-red surveillance tape showed members of the FBI shooting the Branch Davidians as they tried to escape from the burning building, almost every hand went up. They were willing to believe that the Davidians were massacred in cold blood.

"The FBI's never going to allow this film to go on to general release," said one man. "There'd be a revolution."

One person objected that there were not enough interviews with the FBI and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF), a fair complaint. (The film challenges the ATF claim that its agents were ambushed by the Davidians while trying to serve a search warrant, suggesting instead that the ATF launched the original assault with infantry and helicopters before there was any sign of resistance.)

"We went to great lengths to get access to the ATF and the FBI," says the co-producer, Mike McNolte. "But they turned down every request."

The message of the film is that the Davidians were the victims of an FBI smear campaign that was negligently parroted by the media.

"They were all good people," maintained Jack Harwell, the sheriff in Waco. "I was around them quite a lot. They were always nice, mannerly people. They minded their own business. I liked them."

Alan Stone, professor of law and psychiatry at Harvard, said when he was brought in by the Justice Department to review the case, he assumed his task was to penetrate the mind of the Davidians. "But I quickly became aware that the psychology of the people outside the compound was more important."

Rules of Engagement made its debut at Robert Redford's Sundance Festival in January, where it caused a minor furor. It will be shown at the Human Rights Watch film festival in New York on June 6. "It's the first time the Left will have a chance to look at Waco in a different way."

For the director, William Gazecki, it has been a long struggle to gain legitimacy for his film.

"When people heard I was working on Waco the reaction was: 'those nuts deserved what was coming; anybody who molests children should be lined up and shot . . .'"

Mr Gazecki has made the cause his own. "It doesn't matter how you slice it," he said. "The government went in and killed them."

The crowd at the Roxie seemed to agree. When Janet Reno, the Attorney-General, appeared on the screen there was a spontaneous eruption of hissing from the floor. So maybe Americans do care after all.
<http://www.telegraph.co.uk> inhumane. As shown in the film, a few seconds exposure to CS causes soldiers to become incapacitated and scream in pain. At Waco, infants, pregnant women and elderly men were sprayed with CS repeatedly for over six hours.

SAVING CHILDREN?

The FBI's justification for gassing children with CS was to "get their parents to surrender." But as one witness declared at the congressional hearings, "In America we protect children. We don't torture them for the alleged crimes of their parents."

Forensic experts also testified that when CS burns, it produces hydrogen cyanide gas - the same gas used to execute convicted murderers. Indeed, coroners confirm that corpses in the ruins had high levels of cyanide.

What comes next is not for weak stomachs. In hellish scenes, you see footage of the contorted, crushed, charred and bullet-ridden bodies of men, women and children - silent testimony to the ruthless brutality of the federal government.

All of these events and images are juxtaposed with film of repeated public denials and lies by the FBI, BATF and Attorney General Janet Reno. Official after official testifies at the House hearings that "not a single shot was fired by the FBI on April 19," "the Davidians shot themselves," "the Davidians set themselves on fire," "we gave them every opportunity to leave peacefully," and "the government's first concern was to protect the children."

Footage in Waco: The Rules of Engagement - including the FBI FLIR film - has been offered to major news stations across the United States. To date, every single station has refused to broadcast it. According to Waco's producers, CBS and 60 Minutes have had the film for more than two years but will not show it.

The House Waco Investigation also had all of this information, including the FLIR film. Yet at congressional hearings, both Republicans and Democrats swept the crucial evidence under the rug.

Waco: The Rules of Engagement was independently produced by Dan and Amy Gifford. They are professional film makers.

Waco: The Rules of Engagement deserves to be seen by every American. If the information in the film is correct, hundreds of FBI and BATF agents and dozens of top FBI, BATF and Clinton administration officials conspired to commit mass murder in Waco and then covered up their crimes. They should be behind bars, not be running the government.

Information about theaters showing Waco: The Rules of Engagement can be found on the Internet at <http://www.waco93.com>. Contact independent theaters and TV stations in your area and encourage them to show the film.

Federal Agencies Not "Relating" To Public

One of the most glaring problems in America is the lack of communication federal law enforcement agencies have with the public. In recent times the ATF, FBI and US Marshals have been involved in many questionable actions against U.S. citizens. And to make matters worse, when they are found to be over zealous in their arrests and sieges, they have covered up the facts and actually lied in court to protect the operation. No one can fault agents for wanting to be a team member or a good ole boy to protect their buddies. But what about the relationship that law enforcement is suppose to have with the American citizen? All too often the public sees the federal agent as a vulture ready to pounce on anyone who even looks like he's getting out of line. To complicate the problem, most Americans don't even know what the laws are! There are so many new laws that the average citizen doesn't have time to go down to the library and read them all. The Crime bill and anti terrorism bills were hundreds of pages long, even the congressmen didn't read the entire bill that they passed.

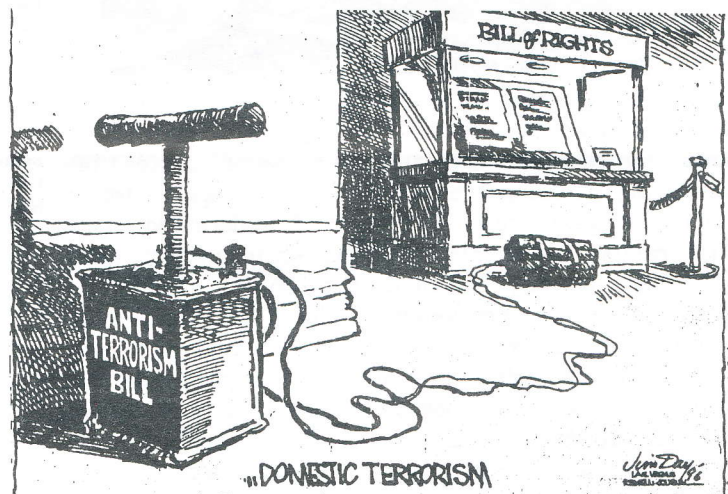

Where is the federal governments accountability in educating the American citizen to what the law is? Why don't agents discourage illegal acts rather than infiltrating patriot groups and encouraging them to break the law? If the federal agencies want the respect of the nation then it is high time they started leading the nation with good ethical leadership. Instead of being upfront with the law, the agencies seem to prefer covert activities where they can encourage illegal acts, just so they can make an arrest. There is something sinister and underhanded in promoting evil, lawlessness and corruption, and then arresting the saps that were beguiled into criminal activity. This nation would be a lot better off if the federal agencies would spend more time discouraging criminal activity rather than encouraging it.

In every recent case where militiamen were arrested in Washington, Arizona, and Alabama, federal agents had infiltrated the groups and led, suggested, and promoted illegal acts. Some were deceived by the agents, and now they will pay for years in prison. Stopping illegal acts and terrorism against America is a good thing. But enticing citizens to do evil is evil in itself. The agencies have nothing to be proud of in the lives they have ruined. If the agencies wanted to be noble why didn't they stop the bombing in New York City? Their own agent helped make the bomb. The ATF told their people that they didn't have to go work that day in Oklahoma City. Why didn't they warn the rest of the occupants of that building?

If the federal agencies are so proud of the new laws they are enforcing, why don't they hold town meetings across America and discuss these laws with the citizens? If the people really knew what the laws were they would press their Congressmen to change the laws, or accept them and avoid breaking the law. But the real question is, do the liberal politicians truly want the public to know the laws? Absolutely not! It is easier to arrest uninformed Americans at random and create a police state, than to be open with the facts and lead with honor. The regime that is in power at this time has an agenda. That agenda is to vilify, demonize and destroy the patriot movement. Simply because, the patriot movement is the only thing standing in the way of the new world order being established.

Government agents need to start communicating with the citizens. Not once did an agent come to the protesters at the Ruby Creek bridge and explain what was going on. Not once did a federal agent come up to Timothy McVeigh in Waco and discuss the complex situation during the siege. Not once did an agent visit the militiamen in Washington or in Alabama and say, "I understand your frustration with all these new laws about losing your second amendment rights. But, let me be clear, don't break these laws or we will have to arrest you. If you want to see these laws changed tell your congressmen."

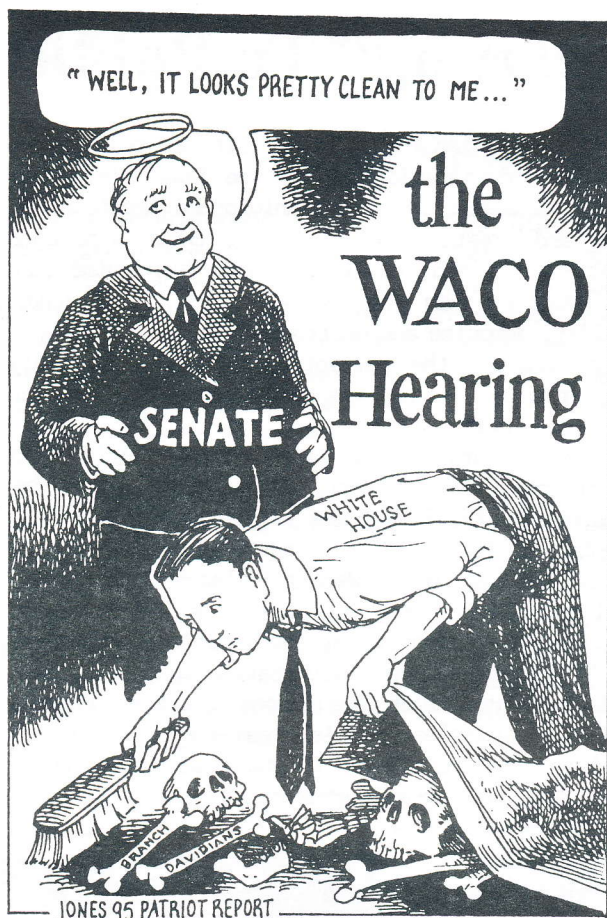

Where is the citizenship, the compassion and the American honor with these agencies?

Case in point, in Idaho a few years ago a few young men were attending a right wing groups meetings, and an agent spotted them and decided they would be perfect targets for arrest. The subject of gays came up and they voiced their opposition to the gay lifestyle and the destructive influence it has on society. The agent invited them to his house so they could talk about it. There in the living room was a video camera hidden in the TV. All of their conversations with the agent were recorded. He encouraged them to bomb a gay bar in Seattle, he provided the materials to make the bomb, he provided the money to drive over to Seattle, and then they were arrested in a motel room. No bomb had been made, and no one did anything illegal, but those naive young men, some in their teens, were arrested,

indicted and sentenced to over 10 years of prison. Is this something the agencies are proud of? Instead of promoting an illegal act why didn't the agent simply tell the guys this, " Listen, I understand your frustration with this changing society. But this isn't the answer. If you want to do the most good, then push your congressmen and local politicians to enforce the sodomy laws that are already on the books." It is highly possible that the young men who had no resources or jobs would have just dropped the idea of violence and got on with their lives.

As it is the federal agencies have only accomplished in making more enemies. The tactics they have been using are reminiscent of the KGB rather than honorable law enforcement officers.

In the same token, militiamen and patriots must reject every form of offensive violent acts. The nation is turning around, but it is a slow process. Our priority should be to educate our fellow Americans, not threaten them. We need to win the hearts and minds of America, and that is not done by bombing buildings or threatening violence. Don't discuss illegal acts, and don't even think about it. Agents have infiltrated militia groups across the nation, and if anyone is discovered to be a threat to society, they will make an arrest, one way or another. Don't be deceived to do something illegal. Stand your ground by promoting the Constitution and voice your opinion, but live to be free so you can take care of your families in future hardships.

FOREIGN TROOPS PREPARE TO INVADE AMERICA FROM CANADA

According to an article written by The Prophecy Club and other sources, foreign troops in Canada are practicing for the invasion of America. Some of the troops present in Canada are Chinese, Russian, German and North Korean. At this time, more German forces are stationed in Canada than in Germany.

Russian and Chinese troops have been active rebuilding and strengthening railways that lead into the United States. It is feared that box cars may be used to transport resistors to the final moves of the New World Order. Russian locomotives have been spotted in America, and 50 Russian train engineers are currently being trained in Jacksonville, Florida.

The entire 3-page Prophecy Club article is available in the June 1997 Information Packet. This article also includes information about the completion of a tunnel between Russia and Alaska, the Chinese plan to launch an amphibious invasion on the Pacific coast of Canada, and Boorda's murder.

BIG BROTHER IS LISTENING

The last time I read about this, I believed it but had no way to back it up. That is, until I saw a video called "Final Warning" produced by Peter Laude and Paul Laude.

According to a former employee of AT&T they had been working on a secret system for bugging all phone, fax, and e-mail transmissions nationwide. This person was fired from AT&T in 1990 after he complained to a superior that this project was illegal and immoral. According to him a Cray super computer would be able to listen to all phone calls in a centralized location. The computer would listen for a key word or phrase. On hearing such word or phrase the Cray would download the conversation for later analysis by a federal. If no such word or phrase heard the conversation would be erased. I saw the way this works on the video and it was fascinating.

Since at this time, it is illegal for the state (federal government) to do this, nothing can be legally used in a court of law. It is already being done...so keep your eyes open for a law that will enable them to use this against you.

There is no such thing as private phone calls. You can count on the state, when this law comes out, to make sure you know that is "for your own protection" and a "crime prevention" necessity. The feds are listening to your most private conversations.

It gets better. Donald McAlvaney, editor of the McAlvaney Intelligence Advisor, in the January 1993 issue, stated that phones can now be made "hot on the hook". This means that your phone is turned into a microphone even when hung up. So now if you are having an intimate conversation with your spouse in the privacy of your bedroom, the state can hear it. If you are having a bad day, and crying, the state can hear it. If you get aggravated at the lack of freedom you have and complain, the state can hear it. If you get in an argument with your spouse, they know. If you have to discipline your children, the state knows it. ABSOLUTELY NO PRIVACY WHATSOEVER!

According to a 1992 General Accounting Office report entitled "FBI Advanced wiretapping Technologies Pose Wiretapping Challenges" it is the intention of the FBI to tap all phones in America.

People, keep in mind that the FBI has no jurisdiction except for on federal property, like military installations. Where do they get off butting into our private lives? If you think that this will reduce crime, you need to think again. The law breakers will find a way to do it regardless. This takes away honest citizens rights to privacy.

LONG BEACH

WAKE UP CALL

MAY BE LAST - -

BEFORE WAR BEGINS!

... We are all very fortunate that the Long Beach penetration has come to national attention. You had best consider it the LAST nationwide wakeup call. This is the most frightening development ever - - in my 30 years of research on the operation of the Conspiracy and the New World Order.

... Keep in mind that an open nuclear threat against Los Angeles was made by Chinese leaders just last year. A clear picture emerges: ... Long Beach and other Naval bases are turned over to a communist enemy. In a fast shuffle, historic buildings and areas are bulldozed, conservationists, preservationists, wetlands and environmental regulations are superficially brushed aside!!

... San Diego Naval yards are also revealed to be a China unloading point and Federal loans to finance Chinese ship building have been exposed. But more late breaking news:

PANAMA CANAL PORTS - -

LEASED TO CHINA!

... As we go to press, the Washington Times has reported that the Panama Gov't. has granted 25 year leases to operate ports on BOTH SIDES - - the Atlantic and Pacific side of the canal. Obviously, this is in preparation for war with America. Choke points on the canal are intolerable. We are doomed if this is not stopped. Still more late news:

The Washington Times - - 3-21-97

CHINESE ARE - -

ARMING MEXICO!

... Four containers have been discovered, full of all types of armament. Two held up for some reason in a warehouse in San Diego and two released for trucking directly to Mexico - - without inspection, or examination, or any type of control (thanks to NAFTA). Now we know what NAFTA is all about don't we??

IMPEACHMENT DISCUSSIONS BEGIN !

Cong. Hyde

... This is a very important development and the hearings in the Judiciary Committee ... are NOT dependent upon the operation of Senator Fred Thompson's hearings or Representative Dan Burton, Chairman of the House Gov't Reform and Oversight Committee. Bob Barr is a former federal prosecutor of the frame of mind of our readers - - anti-New World Order and politically incorrect.

Cong. Barr - - a man of courage!

... The front page of the Washington Times on Friday, March 14, carried the story that Hyde is preparing for impeachment hearings. A censorship wall has been built around the nation's capitol so that the news cannot reach anyone outside unless they happen to be a subscriber to the Washington Times (which would arrive as much as a week late).

YOU BE THE ONE

TO BREAK THE NEWS!

... Just how long this "wall of censorship" will stand we don't know. Every reader should play a role in breaking the censorship by contacting local media representatives and asking them - - "do they realize - - that Cong. Henry Hyde has begun preparations for impeachment hearings?? ... That's right - - we're talking about the impeachment of the President Bill Clinton."

The Washington Times - - 3-14-97

... They will gasp and claim that you are surely incorrect, however, we will be happy to fax your local paper a copy of the front page story in the

Misuse of Militia Is Reckless

As the militia movement has gained momentum there are some individuals who are misusing the militia concept. Originally in this nation the militia was used to stand defensively against obvious usurptions of power. The British were over taxing the people, requiring the ministers to only preach the government line, and they were coming after the citizens to disarm them. It was not used for personal political gain, personal vendettas or to further a particular agenda. The militias existed then and now to back up the legal, constitutional government from tyranny and invasion. Unfortunately, not everyone in the militia movement is following that rule. Case in point is the Texas standoff. The gentleman who is promoting the Texas Republic issue is trying to get Texans and the federal government to recognize the illegality of the annexing of Texas after the civil war. But, because of his behavior and irrational activities he was officially impeached by the organization that was involved with this Texas nationhood process. Later he takes it on himself to ask for militia support in his secessionist agenda. That is a reckless use of the militia, and only one example of individuals in recent times misusing the militia.

Everytime some yahoo comes along and thumbs his nose at the law and brags about the militia defending him is making a mockery of the true militia and giving the press and the feds more excuses to go after gun owners. If the patriot movement is ever going to be effective in turning this nation around to a more Constitutional government, then we need to have solidarity in our purpose and use wisdom in all our activities.

Great movements of the past can be likened to a giant wave. Those who precede the wave will not ride high onto the beach of change, but instead are ground into the sand and coral on the bottom of the sea. But, those who are wise and patient recognize the wave and join with it at the time it is moving towards the shore, and they will survive to enjoy celebrating that giant wave's changing the beach. Such great men who have ridden those waves are our founding fathers, Washington, Jefferson and Patrick Henry to name just a few. They did not "jump the gun" and call out the militia recklessly. They were a part of a great movement of millions of citizens who stood firm against tyranny. We must recognize that the conspirators for a one world government are still going ahead with their plans of "gradually" taking over. As they are taking time to gain more control over our lives we are actually given more time to get the truth out to the nation. It is working, and we need to stick with the program of educating Americans. To win the hearts and minds of the people all we need to do is tell the truth. Intelligent citizens will be able to distinguish between fact and fallacy. Real American will defend liberty and the Constitution. The key is we should no longer be afraid of telling the truth. A simple letter or phone call to a sheriff congressman, or military person saying that you are concerned about politicians giving away our jobs and our bases to communists who have sworn to destroy us, is rational and appropriate. We should no longer assume that the liberals and those pushing a socialist agenda are going to achieve their goals. It is important that we resist tyranny in any form and at any time that it arises on the scene. We would have expected that from our fore fathers, and they would have expected no less from us. Mandatory Volunteerism is an Oxymoron

The latest push by our globalist handlers is to promote volunteerism. Why push it now? What is their ulterior motive? Volunteerism has been with societies since the dawn of time, it's nothing new and there's nothing bad about it, if it truly is by choice. But, the recent photo opportunities by Clinton and the other CFR /Trilateralists conspirators showing how to volunteer cleaning up a ghetto is a sickening display of deception.

First of all if it is going to be truly volunteer work, then why is Clinton pushing this work as mandatory? The high schools in Maryland have adopted this NVO plan, forcing their students to volunteer 75 hours of work or else they will not be allowed to graduate. One bright student agreed that volunteer work was great, but refused to be forced to volunteer. She was denied her diploma. To receive her high school degree she had to take a high school equivallence test outside the school system.

In recent times President Reagan promoted volunteerism as the answer for social programs that were making the federal government too big and too expensive. Did the democrates suddenly switch parties and ideology? The answer is no. Politicians will promote whatever program that the bankers want promoted at the time. The "Great Society" pushed by Johnson was designed to get the public hooked on government programs and to increase the national debt. Once that was accomplished the conspirators pull their support away from federal giveaway programs and then push for federal work programs and volunteerism. They know full well that the reason volunteerism is being pushed is because the government is going to stop giving money away.

This new strategy will not fix America, and the politicians know it. If they truly wanted to help Americans they would stop sending all our jobs out of the nation! You cannot have a healthy, thriving nation without a good economy. The conspirators

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

My grandfather used to work at the Long Beach Naval Shipyard & I remember many tales that he used to instill in me as I was growing up about the government & the New World Order. He also served in the Navy under some powerful men. He was at Pearl Harbor, & before he passed on, he showed me documents from the Navy that show that Pearl Harbor was not as presented to the Americans. I was wondering if you might have an idea what he was talking about? He always told me never to join the government's armed forces, for obvious reasons.

After all these years I am glad I've come across a movement that is strong in mind & goals. Texas

Dear Texas,

Thank you for your letter. I appreciate your patriotism & keen awareness of the goings on in our nations. To answer your question about Roosevelt, he knew about the Jap's plans to bomb Hawaii & didn't warn the Navy. He wanted to get into the war so he could send our men to Europe to fight the "bad" Germans. This is a documented fact. After the war, he sold millions of people into slavery under the Russian Communists. He deeply regretted this fact. At his home in Georgia, he would wail out at night in despair & anguish & guilt for what he did. Then he pleaded with one of his nurses to bring him a gun so he could shoot himself. And that's how he died. The conspirators covered up the truth, saying he died from a brain hemorrhage. He certainly did. That is why they held a closed-casket funeral. Our nation has been manipulated for many decades, & the conspiracy runs so deep that it is difficult to imagine. G. Eaton

Dear George,

Thanks for being a watchman on the wall during this dark hour that our country is going through. I don't believe people are awaking fast enough, but many are awakening nonetheless. I'm doing my part to educate people & I'm constantly amazed at how many people already know what is going on in the world. Unfortunately, it is a slow process with the NWO conspirators continuing their dirty deeds at breakneck speed. I feel like we are in a foot race much like Aesop's fable The Tortoise and the Hare. Keep up the good work! God bless & Godspeed! P.S. Remember how that story ended!

JB/US

Mr. Eaton,

I'm writing to share a few things with you that has went on around here in the last 3 or 4 months. We had an encounter with two young Marines. They had no ribbons, no name tags, really nothing except stripes. They told us they weren't even allowed to have USMC on their BDUs.

A month ago, 30 minutes after dark in the area behind my house, two Blackhawks were flying around without any lights on at all.

Also, about the same time on the base near here, which was closed 4 years ago & is shared with a State Prison camp, on a range which is supposed to be "cold" (not in use) a young man was riding. Two guys drove up, jumped out with automatic weapons, & told him it would be in his best interest to go back where he came from. They wore cammo blues & carried AK 47's.

Helicopters, trucks & vans have patrolled our neighborhood 3 or 4 times in the last 6 weeks.

I heard that in a city about 30 miles from me, the military dropped off one soldier on each block in the neighborhood. A patriot stopped & asked what was going on. The G.I. told him to move on. Later a cop stopped him & told him not to ask any questions. These guys were in full gear & weapons.

Thank you & God bless. Keep up the good work. Florida

Fellow Patriots,

We've watched our nation slowly crumble. We've learned about the very deliberate agenda to have this happen. We've become angry & frustrated when trying to tell our fellow citizens this, & they think we're nuts.

Realize this: we need to do two things. First, get more folks back to God. Second, educate folks with cold, hard facts they can't ignore. If we're going to take this country back (if we have a hope of this) it's going to be with God-fearing, educated people. (Ezekiel 33:2-9)

Also, I believe it is our duty as Christians to both educate others & try to bring them into the flock. And one thing we can do is pray.... pray for change, pray for others to come to the flock, pray for those on the other side to realize their evil ways, but pray. God will hear our prayers, & if we're true members of His flock, He will deliver us in times of trouble. Pam

Dear George Eaton,

I truly want to thank you for your great effort & work bringing me the untold truth what is really happening that is deliberately not told by the controlled media. The lies & distortions that are every day told by "them" to the American people. It is so very true as Jesus (Yahshua) told, "My people perish for lack of knowledge." But, those who seek the truth shall find it.

Missouri

Dear Mr. Eaton,

I wonder how many readers of the Patriot Report know about the frantic efforts of certain powerful & wealthy groups to limit free speech in America. The Simon Wiesenthal Center, The Southern Poverty Law Center, & the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith - to name a few - are pushing hard to dismantle our First Amendment guarantee of freedom of speech. Of course, they cloak their deadly work with noble sounding phrases about "teaching tolerance" & eliminating "hate speech" from the Internet & public airways. By "hate speech" they mean the expression of any ideas which are not politically correct - and they will tell us what is Politically Correct!

Readers who are on-line can learn more about this growing threat to our freedom of speech at: www.natvan.com. Free speech: use it or lose it.

Federal Election Law 441e(a) states: "It shall be unlawful for a foreign national to make any contribution of money in connection with an election to any political office or for any person to solicit, accept, or receive any such contribution from a foreign national." Will the DNC, Bill Clinton or Al Gore be accused & tried for violating that law? They should be. Are they above the law?

It has been reported that two Chinese battleships are anchored at North Island (off San Diego). They came in 3/21/97.

A Georgia congressman has asked the House Judiciary Committee to consider opening an impeachment inquiry of President Clinton & Vice President Al Gore. Rep. Bob Barr, a second term Republican & former US attorney in Atlanta, made his request in a 3-page letter to Rep. Henry Hyde, the committee's chairman. "There is no question in my mind that the alarming pattern of abuse of the political process by this White House is unprecedented," Barr said in a statement released March 14, 1997. The White House had no comment.

A National Guard armored carrier was employed recently in Louisiana to arrest suspected drug dealers, so-called "deadbeat dads" and bad check writers. The first arrest began with a half dozen deputies springing from the armored military vehicle & grabbing a man standing by his car, who was behind on his child support payments. More than 65 officers and National Guardsmen were used in the raid. Twenty three people were arrested by 6:00 p.m.

President Bill Clinton signed the Welfare Reform bill. It cuts off welfare after 2 years with a total of 5 years of benefits. If you live in the District of Columbia, not to worry. Clinton has signed a waiver so DC residents can continue to receive benefits if they have searched for a job but couldn't find one. Why? We hear DC, the cesspool of the welfare system, would face riots after the 2 year cutoff & our "glorious leader" might be in grave danger.

Solar Flare Moves Toward Earth

By PAUL RECER

WASHINGTON (AP) — A wave of energy from a solar flare moved toward the Earth today, but scientists said it probably will have little effect on the planet.

For the first time, the flare, which erupted Monday, was captured by a NASA satellite, the new SOHO, giving scientists the first detailed view of the inner workings of such a shock wave.

The satellite detected a shock wave moving across the gaseous surface of the sun "like a tsunami tidal wave," NASA's Art Poland said. "That's the first time we have seen the shock wave."

Poland said the satellite also detected a mass of material ejected from the sun and moving outward at about 1.8 million miles an hour.

THE PRESENT TRUTH MINISTRY

A very large solar flare can disrupt radio and telephone communications, cause power surges and blackouts and damage satellites. Poland said there is no indication that the flare detected on Monday will cause such problems. Don Savage, a NASA spokesman, said that an alert was sent to satellite operators.

Joe Hirman of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's space weather office in Boulder, Colo. said the solar flare is "rather ordinary."

He said the event held special fascination for scientists because it occurred during a relatively quiet time on the sun and that for the first time there were satellite instruments that detected the movement of matter during the flare.

The Alien Files

The Patriot Report is dedicated to educating and warning Americans about any and all threats to our security and continued independence. It is with that in mind that we are compelled to publish information on UFOs and aliens so the truth will be known, and in turn citizens will be able to be prepared for possible threats.

In past information packets the Patriot Report has released information on the alien issue, here is a short review:

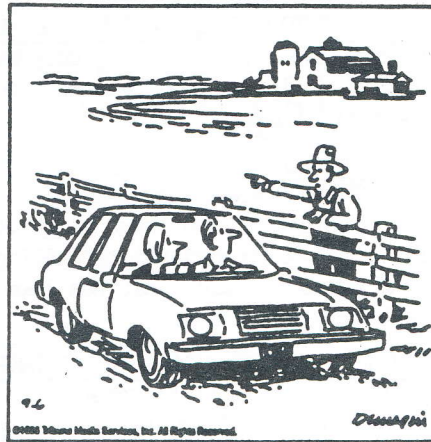

* Crashed UFO's were recovered by the government in the late 1940's in New Mexico. Since that time up to 18 crashes or downed alien spaceships have been recovered and are in storage.

* The alien investigations was transferred to the control of the conspirators scientists. Our own military and congress does not have access to the project.

* The agenda of the aliens and the conspirators for a one world government are the same: Depopulate the earth and control of humans, eradicate independent nations.

We have compiled all the earlier information we released in the information packets and have made the "Alien Files". Plus we have added some recent drawings of space ships and what the reptilians and the grays look like.

Solar flares put out a number of types of radiation which is measured. This helps to estimate the amount energy produced and aids experts in forecasting the effect on Earth.

Although the sun is now rather quiet, Hirman said that in about three years, there will be many flares every day on the sun. He said this occurs during Solar Maximum, the period of major activity in the sun's 11-year cycle of flares.

"During solar max we won't even be able to see a flare this size," said Hirman, referring to Monday's event. "There will be so many larger flares that we couldn't detect this one. There will be much larger flares than this every day."

THE MARK OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER

Is there a plan to identify everyone on the earth with an electronic "biochip" injected into our bodies? Will only those implanted with this unique electronic identification mark be permitted to "buy and sell" while the rest of us are hunted down as "outcasts" in the coming global government cllaed the New World Order?

Is big brother's cashless economic system of global electronic enslavement here now and ready for implementation? What is the technology that will be used to control all of our buying and selling by the year 2000?

This extremely bold and shocking video will address all of these questions, and more! It will explain clearly how existing and developing technology will be used to identify and control each and every one of us in the soon to be implemented global system of socialistic tyranny called the New World Order.

U.S TAKEOVER DISCUSSED AT U.N.

Members of Congree voiced their concern to the new U.N. Sec. General about the United nations taking over America. Kofi Aman tried to reassure them by saying, "We don't have the means to take over the U.S...and even if we did take it, I WASN'T SURE WE COULD HOLD IT..."

(from: Philadelphia Inquirer, 2/9/97) This means that behind the scenes at the U.N. officials discussed taking over the USA, and they decided they couldn't maintain control over the people. Question: WHAT IS PLAN "B"?

"Arms in the hands of the citizen may be used at individual discretion for the defense of the country, the overthrow of tyranny, or private self-defense."

30 MILITARY FAMILIES SUDDENLY LEAVE U.S.

Col. Jim Ammerman is the military chaplain that has been exposing what is going on in the military concerning the plans of the one world conspiracy. In a recent interview on short wave radio with Chris Gerner, Col. Ammerman reveals that some of his air force friends have sold their homes and their cars and have suddenly moved their families out of the 48 states. They could not reveal exactly what they were told, but they did say that they saw orders or plans that something was going to happen in America, and when it did there could be a 50% death rate nationwide. They decided to leave the country, and wouldn't say where they were going. This a riveting interview from a very credible Christian military man.

scheme is to reduce our nation to third world status, where we "compete" with .50¢ an hour labor. The lifestyles of Americans has been unique for generations because we would not allow peasant and slave labor products to flood our market and destroy our standard of living. But the wealthy elite don't care about individual liberties or the well being of the middle class. The wealthy have invested in the cheap labor markets so they can make huge profits at the expense of American jobs. Once this nation is at a third world level, then they can push a one world currency and global government. Instant global socialism, where all are equal and some are more equal than others.

Whatever the conspirators are pushing for, you can bet in the long run it's not going to be good for us. Forced volunteerism is an oxymoron and an example of one world socialism slave labor.

In recent years the Russians had to go out to the fields to dig their own potatoes. They volunteered or starved to death. Recently the Cubans had to go out in the fields and work, in addition to their jobs in the cities. They also caught that wonderful volunteer spirit. Welcome to the New World Order! George Eaton

DISCOVER NEW 'PATRIOT' MUSIC

Millennium 7 music is an excellent way to reach those who have a limited knowledge of the patriot movement. If grand parents want to see their grand children get involved in the patriot movement and to become better Christians, this is the perfect gift for them. If Mom and Dad want to see their teen age children become more aware of patriotism, this is the music that will reach them. If you want your friends and relatives to have a deeper understanding about the tyranny we are already under, this music will tell the story they need to hear.

Since the release of the new music album, patriots across the nation have been ordering the cassette. Because of the success of this project we will be putting another album within a year. We also plan to play this music on short wave radio and on FM Christian radio stations. (Popular Top 40 Sound) Millennium 7, Wake Up America..... $7

Pilots' laser complaints probed

By SEANGRIFFIN
SCRIPPS-McCLATCHY NEWS SERVICE

TACOMA, Wash.— Federal authorities are exploring the possibility that recent incidents in which pilots have been temporarily blinded in flight by laser beams may be more than chance.

The investigation is focusing on Southern California, after three incidents within the last several months.

"In all three it seems as if the airplane was being targeted," said Tim Pile, a spokesman for the Federal Aviation Administration.

The most recent incident happened April 16. A United Airlines 737 pilot, descending toward Ontario International Airport east of Los Angeles, saw "a green light that tracked the aircraft for about three seconds," according to a National Transportation Safety Board report. "During the time the aircraft was being tracked, the light beam struck his eye."

Similar events happened Jan. 7, when a United Parcel Service DC-8

freighter encountered a green laser on approach to the same airport, and on Nov. 29, when the captain of a SkyWest Airlines Embraer 120 suffered eye damage after being struck by a laser on approach to Los Angeles International.

In the two incidents near Ontario, both pilots reported being struck by green lasers. In the SkyWest incident, Capt. Bob Novak reported being hit with a "blinding blue light." But some investigators believe that a green laser going through a tinted wind screen might look blue.

In one case, SkyWest's Novak had to relinquish control of the plane to a co-pilot, who was not hurt. After landing, Novak was treated at a local hospital for multiple flash-burns to the cornea of one eye.

In all three cases, according to the FAA's Pile, the pilots reported that the beam appeared to track the plane for a number of seconds before striking the pilots' eyes.

Bob Crispin, air safety investigator in the Los Angeles NTSB office, said he contacted the FBI after last week's incident because, based on the pilot's report, "this isn't likely to be an accident."

"With a big sky and airplanes moving pretty fast, to be able to get that laser in the cabin window for two or three seconds — you can draw your own conclusions."

The possible sources are believed to include:

- Unlicensed laser light shows.
- A laser owner or owners — perhaps oblivious to the risks — trying to see if the beam can track an airplane.
- A terrorist incident.

"Certainly to track an airplane with a laser beam like this should be a capital felony, punishable by death, because you're doing something that can be reasonably calculated to imperil the safety of everybody aboard that airplane."
